

The Frequency of Higher

By Thandiwe Shiphrah

O to be alive
To ever new iterations of dreams!
Where now?
What else?
Whose history?

In nexus of color
In quilted sleep
Come starry shafts of awakening beams
In each uncompromising century –
The frequency of higher, higher, higher

We are always this close
We so close
We so close
We so close together

How close?

You Me I You
You Me I You
You Me I You
You Me I You
Yuo Me I You
You Me I You

We are the fibers
We are the thread
The loom, the weaving
Over and under
The pattern
And all its variations
