Disability & Health U.S. State Profile Data: Tennessee | CDC
What do all these statistics mean?

• The prevalence of disability across the U.S. and in Tennessee means your program will likely engage people with disabilities in some way.

• As staff, volunteers, board members, artists, students, audiences.
Accessibility is an Organizational Asset

• Maintain and grow audiences
• Bring in new and exciting programs (disability arts, Deaf theater, physically-integrated dance)
• Disability intersects with other ways you may be working to attract audiences
• Disability and accessibility are part of DEIA efforts
Accessibility Laws, Regulations, and Requirements

Rehabilitation Act of 1973

Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

Downloadable Access Symbols
Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973

Prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in programs:

• Conducted by federal agencies (e.g. NEA events)

• Receiving federal financial assistance (e.g. NEA grantees, etc.)
Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA)

Prohibits discrimination and ensures equal opportunity for persons with disabilities (amended in 2008)

• Title II – State and local government services (State Arts Agencies, Local Arts Agencies)

• Title III – Public accommodations & services, private organizations, commercial facilities, (e.g., museums, performing arts centers, theaters, galleries, classrooms, outdoor spaces, etc.)
This means...

• All organizations are legally required to provide reasonable and necessary accommodations for staff and visitors with disabilities.
Designating an Accessibility Coordinator

• The Accessibility Coordinator serves as point of contact for arranging accommodations.
  - Requirement under section 504 (and those receiving federal funding) and ADA

• Include your accessibility coordinator’s name and contact information (e-mail, phone) on your website/promotional materials.
Promoting Access Services

• Include access information in all project publicity (press releases, programs, media, website, e-mail):
  - Can use disability symbols to convey accessibility information/accommodations
  - Provide contact information for requests
  - Additional information about your facility (location of accessible entrances, other services)
Accommodations Process

• Accommodations can be made:
  - Upon request
  - For specific dates, performances, or activities
  - Included as part of every activity

• Include accommodations request process and contact information on your website/promotional materials
Section 504 Self-Evaluation

• All NEA grantees, including subgrantees, must complete the NEA's Section 504 Self-Evaluation Workbook or a similar assessment tool.

• The completed workbook must be kept on file and updated every 3 years.
Section 504 Self-Evaluation (cont’d)

• You do not need to submit the workbook, but you must provide it to the NEA or the public if requested.

• Failure to have a 504 self-assessment on file is a common audit finding.
